SHARE STUDENT MENTOR PROGRAM (SSMP)

We all had someone in our lives, other than a parent, who made a difference to us. This is what you can do for a youth in our program. It's really pretty simple—it's a matter of making yourself available on a consistent basis. It is an avenue of offering your service for those who need them most and empowering the younger generation.

Who can be a mentor ?

1. Professional with at least master or equivalent degree.
2. Having a good standing in the local community and have history of volunteerism.
3. Available for providing counseling and guidance to the student.
4. Agree with the mission of SHARE International.
5. Mentorship is open for both genders.

How does it work ?

1. Mentor will be required to fill a brief form. Available from the website or on request.
2. SHARE International will provide the name and contact information to the mentor who has signed up to be a mentor.
3. The professional area of interest will be matched with that of the student.

Guidelines

1. The mentor must respect common norms of confidentiality and privacy in their conduct.
2. Staying in touch by email or other means of communication with the mentee at least 4 times a month .
3. Responding to request (for guidance and questions in a timely fashion.
4. This will not require any monetary activity i.e. the mentor is not required to do any financial sponsorship directly. In case there is financial need of the student, the requests can be forwarded to Share by emailing to info@shareglobalcharity.org.
5. The mentor is representing Share International and is expected to uphold the values and mission of Share International in their conduct. The mission and values can be found on the website www.shareglobalcharity.org.
